CONGRATULATE
JEANNE ALLEN & CER
for 20 years of service to the Nation’s students and their families
Jeanne Allen is a visionary, a pioneer, a mentor, and a friend. Before education reform was popular and mainstream, Jeanne led the charge, trained parents and leaders and friends to join the fight, and worked tirelessly to create new opportunities for parents, students, and educators. Jeanne is one of the only people I’ve ever met — ever — who never shies away from speaking truth to power, regardless of who that power may be. If a tough fight needs fighting, people ask Jeanne Allen to fight with them — because they know she’ll give it her all. The result: tens of millions of children are receiving a better education, and Americans are demanding even greater change. It’s been an honor just to know Jeanne...and a heck of a lot of fun to work with her. And now, just imagine what Jeanne will do in the next 20 years!

- Andrew Campanella
  National School Choice Week

I first met Jeanne within a year or so of when the organization CER formed. In the early days, I was one of those folks who represented the business community in a clearly under-performing K-12 state. My mantra started as all the manufacturing employers wanted was students to complete school with the Read, Write, Compute, Think and Do Work skills we needed. Within a few years, Jeanne had made me realize that was not enough without adding “at an ever changing globally competitive level.” Nevada is mining country going back to its founding to provide Lincoln three more Electoral Votes it turned out he didn’t need. This is hard rock mining and in most mines there is a daily explosive blast of break loose the rock for the next few days. The explosives quantity is a pretty small package for the amount of impact they have on breaking the rock which has been in place for perhaps millions of years. Jeanne is a small package; however for years she has blasted through the resistance to change and stagnation in the nations schools which has failed a large portion of our nation’s children for decades. She will be missed, but is sure to pass along the blasting caps for the next generation of reformers.

- Ray Bacon
  Nevada Manufacturers Association

Where would we be without Jeanne? With deepest thanks for work that has blessed a generation of kids -- and so many more to come as the work takes root across our nation.

- Katherine and David Bradley
  CityBridge Foundation

Congratulations on twenty years of leading the way! Your vision of helping to change and reshape the educational landscape in this country is a clear win for our most precious assets, America’s children. Sending you my best from the hills of western Massachusetts.

- David Pivirotto, Massachusetts

  National School Choice Week

The Center for Education Reform opened its doors in 1993 because a young mom and policy wonk saw the need to bridge the gap between policy and practice. Since day one, Jeanne has tirelessly crusaded for change, connecting people and ideas to challenge conventional wisdom. Scrutinized for telling it how it is, calling out our friends and detractors alike, Jeanne has never wavered in her conviction and for that, millions of students across America have a better life. It’s with this solid foundation and Jeanne’s mentorship all these years that we are honored to take CER into its 3rd decade to carry on the mission to make all schools work better for all children. Thank you Jeanne!

- Kara Kerwin & Alison Zgainer
  The Center for Education Reform

Jeanne has always been on the forefront of educational reform and school choice. Jeanne’s efforts have impacted the lives of students and have paved a path for future changes to our education system. Stay strong and keep up the fight.

- Jonathan Hage
  President and CEO, Charter Schools USA

It has been a pleasure to know Jeanne and her dedication to school reform. Jeanne hung in there through thick and thin. She can now reap the benefits of all the hard work over these last 20 years. Education reform is now gathering the final momentum! All the very best to Jeanne in her next endeavor.

- Mel Kaplan, Co-Founder
  Harry Singer Foundation

Thank you so much for your tireless advocacy of school choice in all its varieties. Your heart and determination have inspired me for many years as I have reached out to friends and family on behalf of competition for our education dollars. Bless you, Jeanne, and know that your efforts will continue to bear fruit!

- Laura Hornbeck, Van Alstyne, TX

You have been an inspiration to ed reformers around the country. I’m proud to have followed you since the first days of CER. Please know that our country will be better as a result of your success in bringing the message to legislators and parents across all the states.

- John Eason, Nashville TN

THANK YOU
Jeanne Allen
FOR 20 YEARS
OF DEDICATION
Jeanne Allen is a force of nature, more hurricane than forest fire. She was indeed an education reformer before it was “cool” and today remains as ardent and energized in this realm as anyone I know. She’s smart, brave, creative, well-spoken (to ordinary folk as well as lawmakers, journalists and experts), resourceful, absolutely tireless and utterly self-confident. Some might even say relentless! I’m hard to impress — but she’s impressive indeed, and I eagerly await a glimpse of the new worlds that she will yet conquer.

- Checker Finn
  Thomas B. Fordham Institute

Jeanne, congratulations on 20 years of success! You are a true pioneer and a relentless warrior for children. You’ve been an incredible influence on my own career and it is you who taught me the true meaning of “education reform.” Thank you for being such a strong voice of reform and for helping to create the space for others to follow in your footsteps. Congratulations!

- Anna Varghese Marcucio

Jeanne Allen has probably contributed more to our country’s educational reform movement than anyone else. She is tireless in her pursuit in providing a more level playing field for so many kids – and, despite all odds, is achieving enormous success. Our educational system, on many levels, is vastly improved – and, Jeanne Allen deserves a lot of credit for this. We should all be very grateful there is a Jeanne Allen devoting energy & time to this most important work.

- Chris White
  Chairman & CEO Global Event Partners

Jeanne, with sincere appreciation and admiration, we thank you for your dedication to improve the lives of children through education. May you and CER continue to do both!

- Alvin Crawford
  CEO of Knowledge Delivery Systems

The Atlantic Legal Foundation sends its appreciation and very best wishes to Jeanne Allen.

- Atlantic Legal Foundation, Briscoe Smith

Ellen and I clearly remember meeting Jeanne almost 20 years ago in Boston on one of her thousands of outreaches to cities and states across America. Jeanne was on a mission to reform education and provide educational opportunities for all. From the beginning Jeanne had a clear vision of what she hoped to accomplish and her success is a tribute to her extraordinary persistence, energy and passion to stay the course of her mission. A true pioneer and educational entrepreneur and a role model for all!! Congratulations!

- Ellen and Michael Sandler

Following Katrina the support and recognition from Jeanne and CER helped Carolyn and I keep our spirits up as the Blob oozed from every direction. Jeanne, you were part of International School of Louisiana being the first public school in New Orleans to reopen after the storm and thus part of the recovery of the city. Thank you!!

Best Wishes.
- Carolyn and Tom Crosby

Congratulations on 20 years of dedicated and high-impact work on behalf of the education reform movement, and best wishes in your new chapter of vital reform efforts!

- Janice Riddell
  William E. Simon Foundation

Congratulations to Ms. Jeanne Allen on her long record of public service to the country and most significant, to the students of America’s public school systems. There can be no greater testament to her good works and those of the Center than the recent and ongoing efflorescence of charter schools in the mighty Borough of the Bronx.

- Stephen I. Mayo
  Bronx/New Rochelle, New York

Jeanne has singlehandedly taken on the status quo (Educational Blob) and created a force (CER) for the restitution of academic rigor in our classrooms to ensure our kids can and will compete on a worldwide level. She has championed school choice as the lever to accomplish this goal and to make all our classrooms the “home of champions”. Her unlimited physical and emotional commitment thru CER to this end can be seen with the high regard she and CER is held in by any and all Ed. Reformers, the media, and the fear she causes in those that are fighting so hard to maintain our failing educational system of mediocrity and student failure. From the moment we met Jeanne at the 2nd Education Leaders Conference in Dallas, we knew great things would happen and ensured our support and association with this dynamo. If there is someone that has used one voice, is a leader of change, and an example of what we can accomplish with commitment, grit, and a fine tuned intellect, then Jeanne is that example.
