

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 2014

Celebrating Educators

Join us to celebrate innovative approaches to K-12 education in the 21st century.

8:00 - 10:30AM

CityBridge Foundation School Tour

Join us for a tour and roundtable discussion at Ingenuity Prep, a CityBridge Foundation partner school in Washington DC.

11:00AM - 3:00PM

Venue:
Ronald Reagan
International Trade Center

Panel Discussions and Lunch

Strategies for Educating 21st Century Learners.

- Engaging 21st Century Students: Expeditionary Learning and Student Interest Directed Learning.
- The Learning Brain: What is Neuroscience and How Does it Enhance Student Achievement?
- A Vision for 21st Century Schools: Convergence Center's Re-imagining Education Project.

1:00 - 4:30PM

Venue:
1776, Washington, DC

Switchpitch

A role-reversal event where EdTech companies will pitch innovation projects to qualified startups.

4:30 - 6:00PM

Venue:
1776, Washington, DC

Reception and Award Presentation

Join us for a presentation of the National Education Innovation in Teaching Award, plus opportunities to network with other education innovators.

For more information or to register, visit www.NationalEducationWeek.com

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

NOVEMBER 10-13, 2014 • WASHINGTON, DC

National Education Week is the annual conference hosted by National Education Initiative.

The goals of National Education Initiative are:

Improve the American educational system by regularly convening and connecting thought leaders in the private and public sector.

Reclaim America's competitive edge by addressing critical issues impacting education today and in the future.

Ensure continued engagement and collaboration throughout the year with a series of events, including National Education Week, to bring together innovative problem solvers.

www.NationalEducationInitiative.com