

OPEN DOORS UNLOCK OPPORTUNITY

Citywide Call to Action Supporting DC Public Charter Schools and Student Excellence Competition

Appeal to the Mayor to release vacant and underutilized buildings so that more students may have access to high quality charter seats.

Thursday, November 14

The Atrium Hall of the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center, 1300 PENNSYLVANIA AVE NW, WASHINGTON, DC 20004
Complimentary parking in the Reagan Building (bring ticket to event's registration desk)

8:30AM Doors Open: Breakfast is served and guests are invited to mingle/view the Student Excellence Showcase

9:30AM Guests are encouraged to arrive by 9:30AM for check-in at the registration table

9:40AM Guests invited to take their seats

10:00AM to Noon Formal presentation begins

Featuring

Honorable Mary Landrieu
United States Senate 1996-2014

Rick Cruz
Chair of DCPCSB Board

Dr. Howard L. Fuller
Institute for the Transformation of Learning

Distinguished Judges Including:

Honorable Tony Williams
Chief Exec. Officer/Executive Director of the Federal
City Council, and former Mayor of D.C.

Katherine Bradley
President and founding chair of CityBridge Education

along with District Leaders, Student Talents and Charter School Leaders

RSVP to unlockopportunity@gmail.com

DC PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOLS STUDENT EXCELLENCE COMPETITION

CONTEST THEME:

“What my Charter School Means to Me, My Family, and My Community”
Charter Schools nominate K-Adult Students as your finalists

Categories:

ESSAY OR VIDEO | ART OR PHOTOGRAPHY | POEM, SONG OR RAP